

December's Fallen: Extreme Cold, Field Executions, and Barrel Bombs in Aleppo

DCHRS documented 3020 victims including 538 children and 234 women during December, 2013

As violence and systematic human rights abuses continue by the Syrian government regime's forces. DCHRS documented in the month of December, 2013 a total of 3020 victims who were killed by regime's forces and their loyal militias. 76% of them were civilians reaching a total of 2302 victims; however the other 718 remaining victims were armed opposition forces and rebels accumulating a rate of 36% approximately.

DCHRS documented a total of 538 children victims at a rate of 18% of the total victims. In addition the number of documented women was 234 victims at a rate of 8%.

DCHRS analyzed that the main cause of death for 1560 victims was indiscriminate shelling and airstrikes targeting the residential areas. Furthermore; the cases of extrajudicial killings and field executions that were perpetrated by regime's forces resulted in the death of 249 victims. In addition the total number of victims who were tortured to death the prisons and the detentions centers of the Syrian security authorities was 126 victims.

The province of Aleppo, which witnessed a reckless barrels-assault by the regime, recorded highest number of casualties totaling in 1069 where 962 out of them were civilians. Finally the center documented 11 non-Syrian citizens from other nationalities who were fighting with Syrian Armed oppositions.

DCHRS learned that the Syrian regime forces continue to target civilians and they use direct brutal violence against them. As a result the number of civilians reached 76% of the total number of victims. Also since 51% of the death cases were caused by shelling, missiles, and airstrikes. DCHRS indicates and stresses that such high number of casualties in correlation to the cruel cause of deaths are obvious evidences that the Syrian regime forces are intentionally targeting civilians, ruthlessly punishing them, and recklessly ignoring any basic right of their existence. Furthermore the results clearly stated the violations of international human rights laws and humanitarian laws even with other causes of deaths such as torture, extrajudicial killings, and other forms of violations that are categorized under war crimes and crimes against humanity.

DCHRS demands protecting civilians according to the laws approved by the U.N in 2005. In addition since DCHRS is a member of the International Coalition for the Responsibility to Protect (ICRtoP), DCHRS appeals to the international community to practically enforce the "Responsibility to Protect". Furthermore DCHRS calls all the international medical and humanitarian organizations to provide support, medical assistance, and relief to ease the suffering of the Syrian people inside Syria and abroad. Finally DCHRS demands to prosecute the perpetrators of war crimes and crimes against humanity and to bring them to justice.

Thus the center began documenting daily violations committed by the Syrian regime forces that can be classified as crimes against humanities and war crimes. Such violations included: extrajudicial killings, massacres, arbitrary detentions, enforced disappearances, rape, torture in prisons.
